

Governor Earl Ray Tomblin
and First Lady Joanne Jaeger Tomblin invite West Virginia artists of all ages to submit handmade holiday ornaments for the artistree in the Governor's Mansion foyer.

Submit ornaments to the Culture Center.

Friday, November 14, 2014

For entry form and additional information, visit <http://www.wvculture.org/arts/artistree/2014form.pdf>

Governor Earl Ray Tomblin and First Lady Joanne Yeager Tomblin invite West Virginia artists of all ages to create ornaments for the Artistree that will be on display at the Governor's Mansion during the holiday season. The ornaments will be featured in a commemorative catalog, and participating artists will be invited to a celebration at the mansion.

ORNAMENTS MUST BE SUBMITTED BY 4 p.m. NOVEMBER 14, 2014

- Ornaments must be hand-crafted by West Virginia artists.
- Limit one ornament per artist.
- Ornaments must be suitable for hanging on a roughly 15-foot tree.
- Please include all fasteners and fixtures necessary for hanging.
- Ornaments will become the property of Governor's Mansion.
- Please submit the completed submission form below along with your ornament.

Mail or Hand-Deliver Ornaments to:

West Virginia Division of Culture and History
Attention: P.J. Dickerscheid
The Culture Center
1900 Kanawha Blvd. E.
Charleston, WV 25305

Artist's Name _____

Artist's address (street, city, zip code) _____

County in which artist lives _____

Artist's Phone _____ Artist's email address _____

Title of ornament _____

Medium used to create ornament _____